EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Spaw on 09 June 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1: Rewrite line 19: "a power control circuit for outputting a control signal to control an on and off operation of said power feed semiconductor switch, thereby controlling the". (This is to correct the unclearness of the limitation "on/off operation".)

Claim 2: Rewrite line 2: "wherein a hall device for detecting a magnetic flux of said plural permanent". (This is to correct the lack of antecedent basis of the limitations "said hall device" and "the magnetic flux".)

2. Claim(s) 1-5 and 11 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim(s) 1: The prior art fails to teach or make obvious a drive unit comprising a speed detector, a position detector, a drive circuit, a power feed semiconductor switch, and a power control circuit, wherein the power control circuit is constructed such that after the rotor is stabilized, the power feed semi conductor switch may have turn off-time set shorter when an actual rotational speed is slower in comparison than a target rotational speed, and set longer when the actual rotational speed is faster than the target rotational speed and set as it is when an actual rotational speed is equal to the target rotational speed.

Claim(s) 11: The prior art fails to teach or make obvious a method to control a plurality of fan motors, wherein the motors are set to rotate at a normal rotational speed less than the maximum speed of each motor, and when one of the motors is stopped, the remaining motors are set to rotate at the maximum speed.

Claim(s) 2-5: The claim(s) depend from the above-mentioned allowable claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
